It was never about creating real change, it was always about politicizing an issue to the fullest extent.	127

He is well known in the community for his dedication, attention to detail, and incredible compassion. He remains in critical condition. My prayers are with him & his family.	2

He has a servant's heart & finally achieved the goal he's been working towards for years. He is stable, but not out of the woods yet. He needs our prayers.	1

With rioters shouting "kill cops" all over the country, the heartbreaking reality is that this will not be the last act of violence against police.	5
