About the Portland Room : Special Collections

The Portland Room, located on Level 2 in the Main Library, houses the Library's Special Collections and Archives and is the city's hub to preserve and provide access to Portland history. The growing collections include printed books and periodicals, maps, archives, manuscripts, photographs, digital records, as well as microfilmed and digitized Portland newspapers. All are welcome — researchers, students of all ages, and classroom groups.
