do you ever wake up and find that the world is sort of locking down due to a global pandemic and perhaps you'd rather not be stuck in a city so you pack up yer dog n yer ladyfriend and head south thirteen hours, down to your friendly neighborhood farm animal sanctuary and spend three months doing chores and makin food and hanging with animal friends and human animal friends and getting up to all sorts of things?

(yes, privileged as hell)

let's go

this was around the time George Flyod was murdered by police...

it felt weird to be making this sort of irrelevant comic when other folk's lives were/are at stake.

make sure to do what you can to fight oppression wherever you find it.

and just like that,
the "end"

this comic was a comic-a-day project of mine during the first three months of the covid19 lockdown.

I was lucky enough to spend it somewhere I love (the Piedmont Farm Animal Refuge) with folks I love (partner Lindsay, refuge founders Paul & Lenore, my very good boy/dog Oso, and many many other wonderful animals friends).
