

The Martin Luther King Day Lecture

"The MLK Connection to the Civil Rights Movement in Tennessee, and How the Civil Rights Movement in Tennessee influenced MLK, 1957-1968."

By

Dr. Bobby Lovett

TTU Derryberry Auditorium

12:00 Noon

Monday

January 18, 2010

To be followed with a book signing of Dr. Lovett's book, The Civil Rights Movement in Tennessee: A Narrative History.

Bobby L. Lovett is former Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences and is a professor of history at Tennessee State University. He is the author of several books including, The African-American History of Nashville, Tennessee, 1780-1930: Elites and Dilemmas and a contributor to The Southern Elite and Social Change: Essays in Honor of Willard B. Gatewood, Jr.

Sponsored by the Commission on the Status of Blacks, Muslim Students Organization and the Upper Cumberland Islamic Society