SOURCE DOCUMENT ADVISORY

Digital images were created from printed source documents that, in many cases, were photocopies of original materials held elsewhere. The quality of these copies was often poor. Digital images reflect the poor quality of the source documents.

Where possible images have been manipulated to make them as readable as possible. In many cases such manipulation was not possible. Where available, the originals photocopied for publication have been digitized and have been added, separately, to this collection.

Searchable text generated from the digital images, subsequently, is also poor. The researcher is advised not to rely solely upon text-search in this collection.

HEADQUARTERS 106th QUARTERMASTER REGIMENT
Camp Blanding, Florida.

To the Officers and Enlisted Men of the 106th Quartermaster Regiment:

The future of civilization itself is today dark and uncertain. Whither the path of duty will lead you is unknown. There is, however, no uncertainty in my mind as to the manner in which you of the 106th Quartermaster Regiment will carry out any assignment given you.

The motto, "Ready to Accomplish," represents the unswerving purpose of your predecessors and a splendid record has been built around these words by them. If occasion calls, you of today will add more glorious pages to those already written.

I shall always treasure in my memory as one of the outstanding events of a long military career, the many happy months spent working with you in a common cause, that of preparation to defend our country against any and all enemies.

My best wishes and warmest personal regards to each of you.
