WELCOME to Ghosts and Spectres - Shadows of History! This exhibition presents stories from the past, some of which have been overlooked, rewritten, or simply forgotten. Through local mythologies, ghostly figures, and traditions, we explore the complex ways which stories can be told, lived, and remembered. So let your imagination run wild with this activity booklet! Let it guide you in thinking about the works you see. Have fun!

Recommended age: 10 and above

FIND The Nameless and The Name by Ho Tzu Nyen. Why do you think someone might have different names or secret identities?

DRAW your secret identity. Be careful, make sure no one's looking!

My secret identity's name is

FIND Citizen's Forest by Park Chan-kyong. Each character represents a story from the past.

DRAW a ghost that you are familiar with.

FIND Letters From Panduranga by Nguyen Trinh Thi. Two people remember an ancient culture. What do we lose when a culture disappears?

WRITE about a lost culture. Don't worry about it being accurate! Mix fact and fiction to subtly expose your point of view.

FIND Fireworks (Archives) by Apichatpong Weerasethakul. How do the flashing lights and sound affect your watching experience?

LOOK through the page after cutting a hole in the middle, along the dotted lines. How does it change your perception of your surroundings?
