

Gen. I. I. Stevens and J. D. Bagley.

Resolutions relative to the death of Gen. Isaac I. Stevens, late of this Territory, who was killed in one of the recent battles on the Potomac, were introduced in the House of Representatives on the 18th inst. by J. D. Bagley of Clalam county, who delivered a eulogy upon the illustrious deceased. During Gen. Stevens's residence here, Bagley was one of his worst personal and political enemies, and everybody thought the resolutions and speech come with a very bad grace from such a source. The friends of Stevens had nothing to say on the occasion, but will do honor to the memory of the gallant dead at an early day.
