

GEN. LANE.—A correspondent of the N. Y. World, writing from Washington, says:—"It is understood here that General Lane will not return to Oregon to reside, but will go back to the "Old North State, and seek the old roof-tree. He has been put out, and prefers to stay out."