Abrams, Charles E.

C. E. ABRAMS' FUNERAL

Took Place in the Presbyterian Church, Tuesday.

JNL. 4/29/03

The funeral services of Charles E. Abrams were largely attended in the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. The Rev. R. H. Herron, Pastor of that church, read the burial service, and a touching address was made by the Rev. J. Riley Johnson.

Rockland Lodge, No. 723, F. A. & M.; Onoko Lodge, No. 122, I. O. O. F., and Jackson Hose Company, of which organizations Mr. Abrams was a member, attended the funeral, and the Masonic burial service was given in the church. The Master of the lodge, Arthur N. Wood, officiated with the Rev. J. Riley Johnson acting as Chaplain. A delegation of Masons came down from Peekskill.

A large and handsome pillow of flowers was furnished by Jackson Hose Company; and one also by the Masons Union of Peekskill. The interment was in Nyack Rural Cemetery.
