

Evening Journal (Adelaide, SA : 1869 - 1912), Monday 20 December 1880, page 2

<http://nla.gov.au/nla.news-article197749125>

Filename:

Synopsis: Association with Semaphore Convalescent Home (doubtful Sir Charles)

Summary:

THE CONVALESCENT HOME.—Among the useful institutions which have been established in this country by the philanthropy of kind-hearted people is the Convalescent Home at the Semaphore. During the festivities and cheer of Christmastide those who would like to relieve the tedium of the inmates of the Home might communicate with Mr. Todd, the Hon. Secretary.

ed. Doubtful this not Sir Charles but may be a Port Adelaide Todd