

The Art of Re-Climation

The Art of Re-Climation: an exhibit of works by 30 artists that express climate change impacts, concerns and hopes for a future of reclaiming the earth's climate balance.

In response to the current climate crisis, the exhibit expresses climate change impacts, concerns and hopes for a future of reclaiming the earth's climate balance. This exhibit, part of the All of Belfast: Climate Dialogues (ABCD) project of the Belfast Free Library, was curated by Belfast artist Mj Viano Crowe and Brenda Harrington, program librarian at the Library.

What an experience it is to see so many ways to portray our sadness, climate anxiety and love for our earth. Thank you

POWERFUL, 😞...

Moving, important, spurs vital conversation - how can we power down? It can be fun & empower local community.

POWERFUL · DISTURBING · AWAKENING CONSCIOUS-NESS. "AWARENESS GROWS" LET US HOPE THAT WE ARE ~~MO~~ "EVOLVING TOWARD A MORE MIND-FUL EXISTENCE." (quoting Diane Oltmanski)
THOUGH THE MESSAGE IS DIFFICULT, I APPRE-CIATE THE QUALITY & BEAUTY OF THESE WORKS.
I APPRECIATE THE ARTISTS' STATEMENTS IN THE BOOK.
THANK YOU ~ RITA SWIDROWSKI ~

Something so solid so abiding about Leslie Moore's "Dark Angels" - those cormorants that I too have stood for minutes watching them perch on "the high wire that spans the Passagassawalkage at the Narrows/where the Upper Bridge used to be" -
May they survive our "dominion."

Wonderful!

Arleta Hesselbet

It has a powerful message. Very well done.

Thoughtful, 5.16.77

devastatingly & inspiring.

This is how we learn... activism thru art. So grateful to these artists
