Celebrating Belfast ~ Places & Play! All Of Belfast: Climate Dialogues 2022 Photo Contest

Announcing the winners!

Congratulations to our winners! And thank you to everyone who participated (we had 35 great submissions). Amy Tingle of Waterfall Arts, our contest judge, expressed that she "loved looking at Belfast through the lens of others." Thank you Amy!

1st Place Winner, "Places" category: Misty Morning by Daniel Hanscome

1st Place Winner, "Play" category: Walking on the Beach by Grace Murdock

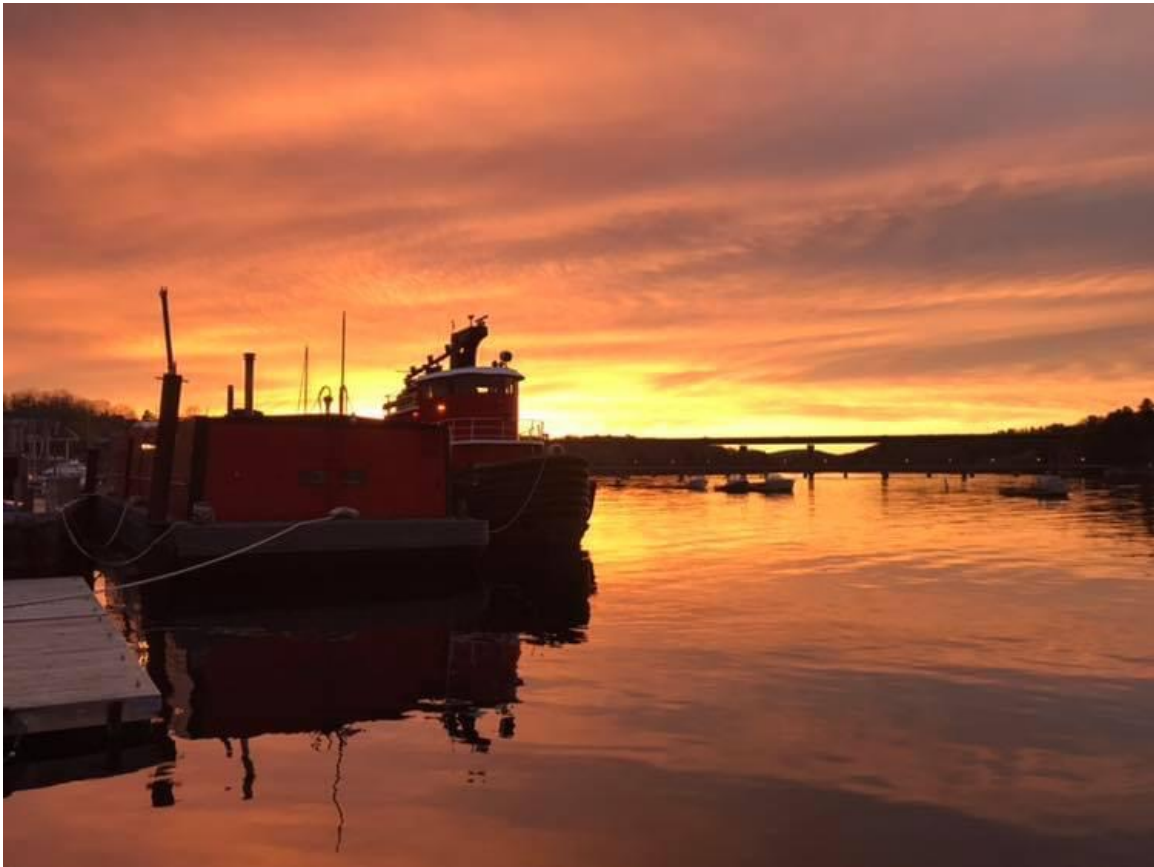

2nd Place (overall): Top of the Morning by Kimberly Snyder Sterrs

3rd Place (overall): Bike Rack, Belfast Soup Kitchen by Turil Cronburg

The ABCD project and the Belfast Free Library invite you to submit photos of your favorite Belfast-area places... and your favorite ways to enjoy them!

Share your photos of the things you love most about Belfast and our corner of Maine... What activities and places bring you joy and gratitude? Look around you, and be inspired.

Contest theme

Submissions can be photos from past and present-day. We’ll judge in two categories:

PLACES - Gathering places, scenic views, hidden gems, favorite spots to visit and enjoy your surroundings. Think about natural places and man-made spots alike!

PLAY - Walking, beach-going, reading, dancing, gardening, dining, curling, creating or seeing art, boating, music, festivals, hiking, biking, live theater, shopping, movie-going, farmers markets, community events, family & friend traditions, and so many more possibilities!

How to submit your photo

1. Review the Contributor Agreement. By submitting, you agree to these contest terms.
2. Send us your digital photo (high resolution preferred) by email at abcd@belfastlibrary.org and put “Photo contest” in the Subject line.
3. Tell us the date (or approximate date) photo was taken.
4. Share a brief caption / description of why this photo represents one of your favorite Belfast-area places or activities!

If you need assistance submitting your photo digitally, please email Brenda Harrington at abcd@belfastlibrary.org.

Deadline for submission: Friday, July 15th, 2022

Prizes and judging

1st Prize (one will be awarded in each category - Place and Play) - $50 gift certificate for a Belfast-area business who is all about PLAY and PLACE!
Your choice:

1. Waterfall Arts class
2. Colonial Theatre
3. Wild Cow Creamery
4. Nautilus Seafood & Grill
5. The Back and Forth

We will print and hang the winning submissions in a temporary exhibit in the Belfast Free Library. When the exhibit is done, the winners will be given their printed photos.

2nd & 3rd Prizes - $25 gift certificate to one of the above businesses; your choice.

All winning photos will be shared on the Library and ABCD websites, Instagram and Facebook with congratulations!

Photo submissions will be judged by Amy Tingle. Amy relocated to Maine from New Jersey in April of 2020. She's a practicing fine artist, editor, and writer. In 2010 she founded Brave Girls Art, a creative workshop series for girls and women, which was folded into the small business she began with her wife in 2013 — The Creativity Caravan, an organization whose mission was to design and facilitate creative programs across the United States. Most recently she co-founded the small press Toad Hall Editions and acts as their Creative Director. Currently Amy is the Program Director at Waterfall Arts in Belfast, Maine.
