Blumfield Concert Highlights Weekend

Coleman Blumfield, young American pianist, will perform at 2:30 p. m., Sunday, October 12, in the Wagner College auditorium. This performance will be the first of a series of three concerts presented by the Wagner College Music Convocation Committee, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia and Alpha Tau Mu.

Coleman Blumfield has recently made a solo appearance with the Buffalo Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Joseph Krips, eminent European conductor. During the present season, Blumfield will be making his first series of public appearances under the management of Columbia Artists Management, Inc.

A member of a talented family, Blumfield was born on November 17, 1933, in Chicago. His father had been a singer with Emil Cooper's Russian Opera Company.

As a child, the young artist worked with Saul Dorfman, head of the department of Roosevelt College in Chicago. In February 1948, he appeared in a recital in Chicago's Kimball Hall. It was reported in Musical Courier after the performance that "he showed remarkable musical insight, imagination, and an unusually well-developed tone and technique."

Later that year he appeared as soloist in the B flat Minor Concerto by Tchaikovsky. After one of his later recitals, the Music News Magazine called him "a teen-age pianist with unlimited possibilities."

After graduation from high school, Blumfield studied at De Paul University under Sergei Larnovsky and Katja Andy. He entered the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia on scholarship and worked for four

The Choir's main project at present is the preparation of a Concert Program for a 3 week tour in January and February which includes the 10 day vacation between semesters. The tour will be announced in more detail on December 1.

In honor of Dr. Steen, who has directed the Choir since 1949, the choir members both present and past have established the Sigvart J. Steen Scholarship in Music. It will be awarded each year to an outstanding choir member.

Six coeds have been nominated for the title of 1958 Homecoming Queen. The nominations are Shirley Colley, Sally Croll, Jacqueline D'Antonio, Gunhilde Grunde, Marilyn Harper, and Judith Knierim.

Shirley Colley, an education major from Kenmore, New York, is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. She is active in the Student Christian Association, and in women's athletics. She reigned as the Sigma Sweetheart last winter.

Sally Croll comes from Niagara Falls, New York, and is majoring in English. A member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority, Sally is also secretary of Alpha Tau Mu, women's honorary music fraternity, and a member of the Wagner College Choir.

Jacqueline D'Antonio, a sociology major from Manhattan, is president of Alpha Delta Pi sorority. She attended the 1957 Homecoming Queen.

Gunhilde Grunde was elected Best Dressed Girl in 1956. An education major from Brooklyn, New York, "Gunny" is a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority, and was recently elected secretary of her floor in Guild Hall.

Marilyn Harper, a member of Delta Zeta sorority, is an art major from Zelenople, Pennsylvania. Marilyn is active in the Art Club, and the newly organized Pennsylvania Club. Marilyn has exhibited her drawings and oils at several New York shows.

Judith Knierim majors in education. Recently elected Standards Chairman of Zeta Tau Alpha colony, Judy comes from Brooklyn, New York, and writes for the Wagnerian.

Elections will be held in the Hawk's Nest October 7, 8, and 9.

HOMECOMING PLANS SET

The "Welcome Alumni" sign will be seen next weekend as Wagner gets set for its annual Homecoming Weekend. Friday, October 17, a holiday from classes for the students will probably be spent in doing those last-minute things on all the floats. The torch-light parade and pep rally Friday night will officially open the weekend. The big event of the evening will of course be the crowning of the Homecoming Queen by Dr. Heindel in the gym, followed by the Freshman Show in honor of the queen. The Student Christian Association Dance Committee has planned an informal dance which will take place immediately after the Coronation and Freshman Show.

Saturday's events will get under way with the pushcart derby, at 10 a. m. in which all the fraternities participate. The main events of Homecoming, the float parade and football game, will follow in the afternoon. This year, the floats will not parade

Business Manager Is Appointed

Elmer G. Brown, a retired U. S. Army colonel, has been appointed business manager for the College, replacing Robert Owens, Jr., who left Wagner yesterday to become business manager of Bennett College, Millbrook, New York.

Colonel Brown, who now resides in Winter Park, Florida, will assume his duties on October 15. He retired in 1957 after more than 30 years of Army service, most of them as an officer in the Finance Department. Prior to his retirement he was comptroller for both the Washington Military District and Fort Lawton, Seattle, Washington.

Before his final assignment on the west coast, Colonel Brown served in England, Latin America, Africa, India and Alaska. From 1952 to '55, he was budget officer and comptroller for the Department of the Army's National Guard Bureau.

SORORITY

"Confidential" has a new "frat" reporter. I'm looking forward to working with Bruce and I hope that together we can make "Confidential" enjoyable reading.

For a kick-off, let's begin with Sept. 20, when the A O II pledges accompanied 17 children from Bethlehem Children's Home to the Metropolitan Museum of Natural History. Rain altered their earlier plan to visit the Central Park Zoo.

People think of sororities and fraternities as social groups and rarely consider the ways in which they serve the campus and the community.

I've already mentioned one of A O II's service projects. Let me add the service projects of the other sororities on campus.

In 1951, A D II adopted a program with the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults which annually presents to the chapters a list of suggested equipment grants. College girls and alumnae fill "Penny and A Prayer A Day" Banks as they save their pennies to contribute at Easter to the Alpha Delta Pi equipment pool purchases.

Delta Zeta's National Philanthropic Program is known as "Adventures in Friendship." The chapter sends an annual gift to Gallaudet College in Washington, D. C., the only college in the world devoted to the deaf. Delta Zeta also contributes to a scholarship which is awarded annually to a qualified student in audiology. In addition, the chapter contributes and "adopts" the blind patients from Carville, the only hospital in the U. S. for the treatment of leprosy. Delta Zeta also encourages projects peculiar to our particular locality. They are now making scrapbooks to be distributed to children in hospitals, and selling pound containers of candy on the campus for one dollar.

Zeta Tau Alpha also has a National Philanthropic Program but since the sorority is still a colony here, no definite plans have been made as to what their chapter project will be.

Now for some "chit-chat!" Pledges Ingrid Arend, Eleanor Carey, Alma Costi, Lydia Haas, Carol Hansen, Cathy Hendrickson, Sally Kriegshaber, Roberta Rinehart, Linda Shemwick, Carol Van Heiningen, Judy Weigel and Sue Williams were inducted into Alpha Delta Pi's Friendship Week on September 20.

Don't forget Alpha Delta Pi's Blue and White Elephant Sale and the Bidding and buying in Beisler Lounge today, October 2, from 1:30 to 7.

Olivia Brewer of Alpha Delta Pi and recipient of a Fullbright Scholarship, recently made her operatic debut in Italy.

Commencing Alpha Tau Mu's concert series on October 12 will be Coleman Blumfield, pianist. Everyone is urged to attend.

At Zeta Tau Alpha's last meeting, the following were elected to office: Scholarship Chairman, Pat Durrwag; Activities Chairman, Carol Sharp; Standards Chairman, Judy Knierin; Magazine Chairman, Marjorie Stover; Music Chairman, Hope Machina; So-

FRATERNITY

In the words of a famous radio announcer, "Hello there world," I shall introduce myself for the first time as writer of the fraternity column. Before I get down to the business at hand I would like to inform all of the fraternity presidents that all information, activities, and items of interest concerning your particular group, should be submitted, in writing, to the Wagnerian box in the Dean's Office. You will be informed as to when the material should be in. Any news submitted late will not be printed. If anyone has any questions he may see me in the New Men's Dorm in room 336.

Alpha Sigma Phi reports that a number of grads have been seen around the campus recently. John Saia '57, who has now departed for Georgetown medical School; Frank Lucatuorto '58, is at this time filling his duties as a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps at Quantico Marine Base in Virginia; also seen were Warren Tunkel '58; and Art Ranges '58.

Pocono Manor was the scene of Alpha's national convention on the weekend of Sept. 3-6. Bro. Heil was the official representative from the Alpha Chapter with Bros. Tunkel, Townsend and Ranges also attending. The representatives were well pleased with the convention and proceedings, and the report has it that national was well pleased with the chapter on our campus.

More convention news. Phi Sigma Kappa held its convention at the French Lick Sheraton Hotel in Indiana, during the week of August 23-29. Representatives were Pres. Bob MacCraw, Tony Atwell and Brian "Woody" O'Connor. The event was a huge success and all attending had a "real ball" in their first taste of national fraternity life. While out in French Lick, the representatives presented a plaque to Dr. B. Nemeschy for the "guidance and brotherhood extended by him to the men of our chapter."

The brotherhood of Phi Sigma Kappa was pleased to hear that Bro. Dr. Richard H. Heindel of Rho Deuteron Chapter of Gettysburg College, Pa., class of '33, was elected as the 14th president of Wagner Lutheran College.

IFC reports that the fraternities this year want to have a separate prize in the Homecoming float parade. Feeling is that now that there are more sororities on campus the competition between the male and female groups can be eliminated with the awarding of the separate prizes as is now being done in the Song Fest. IFC is backing and is desirous of a full schedule of intramurals in all of the major sports.

TYSEN TALK

by Judie Heine

I thought of a dozen different ways to begin this column but none of them expressed the real meaning of capping to us Student Nurses. For to us capping is more than a traditional ceremony for student nurses, it is a feeling; it is more than a mark of a successful two years, it is a dedication.

Dreams and hopes that most of us have had since grammar school are being fulfilled. To us it is a feeling of long awaited accomplishment. To thirty parents it is a sense of pride and an answer to many fervent prayers. To our faculty it is a feeling of another job well done. To Wagner it is another symbol of her great progress.

From now on we will always be dedicated to the nursing profession and will proudly wear the cap of Wagner College School of Nursing.

Our cap in its simplicity was designed by a committee of six nursing students. It symbolizes our acceptance into the professional field of nursing and the fact that we have proved to ourselves and to our faculty our potential worth.

The pure white cap will be worn until May at which time the sophomore class will present us with the green stripe which will complete the

The IFC is sending a letter to Dr. Heindel with the purpose of having him come to a meeting in order to work out a "closer harmony" with the administration.

In order to preserve and strengthen the fraternity life on this campus, APO was invited to sit in on IFC meetings each week and to participate in the word of the council in a non-voting capacity.

REMEMBER NOVEMBER 15!!!
 Coming events for Delta Nu! In the near future: picnic with the alumni. Closed Barn Dance Saturday, Nov. 11. Alumni-Active meeting, Sunday, Oct. 12. Also an alumni cocktail party will be held after the game at Homecoming; more details at the game. Congrats to Rodney Johnson for office on the Board of Athletic Control of the SA.

The newest and rapidly growing fraternity on campus, Pi Chi Omega, announces that they have recently inducted 3 faculty members into the brotherhood. They are as follows: J. Donald Tant, the dietitian; Jackie Hynes, soccer coach; and Russel Schwaul, superintendent of Buildings and Grounds.

REMEMBER NOVEMBER 15!!!
Kappa Sigma Alpha enjoyed a fruitful program of summer activities which are the main bond for the brothers during the summer. On July 28, a swimming, dancing, and fun-for-all party was held at a brother's summer home in Watchung, New Jersey. July 19, a beach party

CHAPEL FORUM

The first of several chapel hours to be planned and sponsored by the Student Christian Association this semester will be at 10 o'clock on Monday morning, October 13. The theme of the forum for that day will be "Christianity and Humor," the purpose of which will be to relate and contrast humor, joy, happiness, and comedy, explaining the significance and true meaning of each in Christianity. It has been described as a "light topic with deep undertone."

Members of the panel that will lead the forum on October 13 include Professor George Giesemann, Professor Charles Kraemer, and Professor Charles Kegley.

While maintaining the dignity and spirit of the chapel service, the SCA plans to sponsor at least one Chapel Forum or similar program each month.

KALLISTA

It is the policy of the Kallista to provide a photographer for all social events concerning Wagner College. This is done in order to obtain photographic material for the forthcoming yearbook. This service is rendered free of charge to all organizations.

It has come to my attention that after being asked to cover a dance, a Kallista photographer was refused admittance to a dance on campus because of an exclusive contract held with another photographer.

It is no concern of the Kallista if a hired photographer solicits business at a social function. We only wish to cover social events for the benefit of the Kallista. We will accept any additional prints of a social function supplied to us, at the cost of the sponsoring organization, with the understanding that we reserve all editing rights.

The purpose of a Kallista photographer is to provide proper coverage which will benefit both the organization and the Kallista. The cooperation and consideration of all campus organizations will be appreciated.

around Grymes Hill, but instead, will go around the football field twice, so that everyone will have a better chance to see each one. Another new policy will be introduced this year: a $50 fine will be levied on each organization which fails to remove their float from the entire campus after the judging has been completed.

After the alumni reception for all those who have come for the weekend, there will be a dance in the gym.

The students who have done so much to plan this weekend deserve a great amount of credit. The Homecoming Committee, which last semester elected Alba Beneforti as Chairman, has been working hard to make the weekend a success. Helping her with this task are Joan Corell and Pete De Ruiter as Co-Chairmen and Susan Wolfart as Secretary. The sub-committee chairmen are: Alumni Reception, Joan Frediani; Dance Committee, Francis Ricciardi; Float Parade, Robert Murphy; Half-time Entertainment, Dave Drake; Pep Rally, Jami Wilson; Pushcart Derby, Fred Ufferfilge; Publicity, Sally Reibel; Queen's Committee, Phyllis Lewis; Queen's Float, Carol Larson; S.C.A. # WAGNER BOWS TO PMC IN OPENER 13-8

The Warmup

by Scott Andrus

It was a week of the most gorgeous weather possible: balmy skies, fleecy clouds, and temperatures so hot that practicing athletes sweated off pounds of fat. Nature seemed overflowing with beneficence and goodwill. Then the night before the game it rained like hell — almost as if the Powers that Be knew Wagner was going to lose its opener.

The game itself had some of the qualities of the weather. It opened like the storm of Friday night, with Wagner recovering a fumble deep in PMC territory and driving to the two yard line. But, after the Hawks had blown two opportunities, the action began to peter out. PMC scored, and the Seahawks tied it up on a great pass reception by end Al Ferrie. Another pass to George Kling gave Wagner the extra points, and put them ahead, eight to seven. And that was the last that Hawk fans had to smile about until Ray Eberle's outfit started playing that night.

The second half, like Saturday's weather, was packed with suspense, but short on action, as Wagner campaigned to get the one touchdown they needed to win. They never were able to come close; most of the action took place between the thirty yard lines and at the end PMC had the ball on the Wagner nine, after four desperation passes had been incomplete.

The Hawk line must have been working overtime since the scrimmage against Upsala, because defensively they were tremendously improved. Everybody was adopting a "get tough" attitude, and with the exception of the sequence leading to their second goal, the Cadets never organized a sustained drive. Unfortunately, neither did the Seahawks.

A football is an egg-shaped leather object which is noted for taking strange bounces, but many Wagnerians have long felt that some obscure form of persecution, rather than mere bad luck, must be responsible for the things that happen on Wagner Field. Saturday's events seemed to bear out this assertion. To begin with, the Hawks got the ball on the PMC two yard line, more or less, through a pretty fine break. They fumbled. A few minutes later, in a similar situation, a touchdown pass found Ferrie. The play was called back: penalty. And then, with time running out in the half, PMC moved the ball deep into Wagner territory. The Hawks needed to hang on for twenty seconds more, and all would be well. PMC punched the ball over. Ralph DiLullo ran the kick-off back forty yards, but the last PMC defender managed to stop him, and the day's scoring was over.

BALLOON MONEY BAD INVESTMENT

The most colossal fake-out of the day concerned the balloons sold at the gate. These have become a tradition — that is to say, they have been used two years running — and the idea is to let them go when Wagner scores its first home TD of the season. The balloons announce to the world, or that part of the world which is near enough to see them go up, that the Hawks have opened their scoring season. So a pass reached Ferrie in the end zone. Hundreds of balloons ascended Heavenward. And at this tensely emotional point, perfect anticlimax in the form of a penalty called the play back. A silence spread through the stands. And the silence wasn't broken until some sports fan whined, "If that balloon doesn't come down again, I want my money back!"

Another year of intramurals is getting under way, and it looks as if it's going to be an expanded program. If there is sufficient interest, as many as six sports will be played, and there are vague murmurs about an award for the best all-around showing. Touch football is first on the list, and if you're interested in this type of exercise, you'd better see about getting a team organized. The details are all in another story on this page, and a meeting is planned for this morning (Thursday) at ten o'clock. The place is G-1.

Another varsity team began its schedule this week, just a little too late to be covered in this issue. The soccer team was scheduled to open at Adelphi Wednesday, and play Fairleigh Dickenson here Friday. The other aggregation, the cross country team, doesn't start until October 11, when it takes on Brooklyn Poly. Bridge tryouts are held daily, all day, in the Hawk's Nest.

HOCKEY COMING

This year, as in the past two years, there will be a Women's Field Hockey Team. Those girls who were on the team last year can boast of a better record than many of the other teams — both men's and women's. Miss Rauba, of course, is hoping for a better team this year, but for that she needs girls who are interested in playing. Ten girls are returning from last year's team to stand behind those shinguards and there are a few promising freshmen.

The schedule for this year is tentatively as follows:
 Oct. 24 Queens ..... Away
 Oct. 31 Brooklyn ..... Away
 Nov. 7 Hunter ..... Away
 Nov. 11 Adelphi ..... Away

There is a strong possibility for two or three more games not yet scheduled.

Anyone interested in playing should see Miss Rauba. Practice will be held on Mondays and Wednesdays at 4 p. m. on the Oval.

INTRAMURAL PROGRAM PLANNED

GIRLS' INTRAS

Some of the women on Wagner Campus are interested in setting up intramural teams such as the men have. The women will be competing in volleyball and basketball.

BOWL FOR HEALTH AND FUN

by Dick Schneider

A rugged and experienced PMC line teamed up with some wet, windy weather last Saturday to successfully frustrate Wagner's heralded passing attack. The Cadets from Chester, Pa. made it seven out of seven over Wagner as they bested the home team, 13 to 8.

The Seahawks had an early opportunity to grab the lead as Captain Dave Hahn outraced several confused Cadets to take possession of teammate Paul Nuzzolese's kickoff on the visitors' 30 yard line. Five plays later, Wagner had a first down on the PMC 2, but PMC guard Dick Dundee recovered a loose ball. Before PMC could move the ball downfield, Seahawk Rudy Fusco snagged a Cadet fumble on their 5. Captain Don Trentalange fired a touchdown pass to Al Ferrie, and the air was filled with green and white balloons before the fans saw the play nullified by a 15 yard illegal procedure penalty against the Hawks. Another pas failed, and PMC took over on downs.

PMC Takes Lead

The scoring, all of which occurred in the second quarter, began when PMC back Lyn Marozin intercepted a Trentalange pass on the Wagner 20 and ran it back to the 10. Two plays later, speedy Ed Cocco, whose 81 yard punt return beat the Seahawks last year, scooted into the end zone untouched. Tackle Phil Pomili's kick for the extra point was good, giving PMC a 7-0 lead.

After a poor Cadet punt had given Wagner the ball on the PMC 33, and an offside penalty had moved it to the 28, Trentalange hit Dave Hahn on the 16 with a bullet pass. Then, while being hounded by several PMC linemen, the scrappy Wagner quarterback fired a pass into the end zone which was grabbed with a spectacular twisting catch by Al Ferrie. Trent threw to George Kling for the extra two points, giving Wagner a one-point lead, 8 to 7.

With less than two minutes remaining in the first half, PMC took possession on the Wagner 32. Led by the slashing running of Ed Cocco, the Cadets made their way to the Seahawk 2 yard line, from which fullback Art Stang bulled over for the tally. The Cadets' attempt to pass for the extra two points failed, but the damage had been done.

Seahawks Had Bright Spots

The second half was a defensive battle, neither team being able to threaten seriously. The game ended with a frantic, futile Seahawk passing spree.

Aside from the hard running of Ed Cocco and Art Stang, major credit for the Cadet victory must go to their hard-charging line which, led by Dundee, Adelman, and Loughery, held Wagner to 33 yards gained rushing.

The Seahawks were not without their bright spots. Wally Pagan's defensive play was outstanding, and his bull-like running would have been more effective behind better blocking. As it was, he served as an effective battering ram. Al Ferrie, who played the full 60 minutes, was impressive throughout. Also praiseworthy were the efforts of Tony Franchina, Al Palladino, Charlie Jopp, and Ben Sarullo.

ROOTERS READY

Returning to the cheering squad this year are Dagny Jensen, captain; Jami Wilson, co-captain; Alma Costi; Edna Detmar; and Lydia Haas.

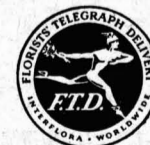

The squad was pleased with the turnout for cheering this season, but due to a pressing time element, they felt it necessary to choose only one girl, Lin VanNortwick. This leaves them with more than one vacancy which they hope to fill at the end of the football season. All girls who are interested in cheering should look for announcements of the coming tryouts.

This year, the girls are working towards a peppy, spirited squad. But this can only be done with the help of the Student Body. Spirit is needed to encourage the football team towards a winning season. The girls are anxious for all students to come and let them know that Wagnerians are behind their teams.
