S.I. LEADERS DINNER

The leading business, professional, and social leaders of Staten Island have been invited to attend a consultation dinner tomorrow evening, November 8, at 7 p.m., in the Alumni Dining Hall, New Men's Dormitory. It is expected that about 150 persons will attend the dinner.

The subject to be discussed is one that should be of interest to every one concerned with Wagner College: How Wagner College may render greater service to Staten Island and strengthen its relationship with the community of which it became a part in the fall of 1918.

Dr. David Delo, president of Wagner College, will make the address presentation and discuss the background of the college. He has stated that Wagner is challenged as never before for there is a 32% increase in the number of young people between the ages of 18-21 now in college and this percentage will increase in the next ten years.

To acquaint the people of Staten Island with the college and its program is the purpose of the dinner. There will be no speech-making; rather the college seeks the advice of the outstanding people of Staten Island as to the solution of our challenge.

SCA Work Camp

The Social Action Committee of the Student Christian Association is sponsoring a work camp at the Bethlehem Orphanage on Nov. 8 and 9.

To begin the work camp, Friday evening, Nov. 8, there will be a meeting at 8 p.m. in the Intersorority room. A short worship service will be held, after which Mr. Bennington will discuss the following day's activities.

After breakfast on Saturday morning, the group will leave to begin their day's work of stacking food, painting, and cleaning the grounds in preparation for the winter months. The price of lunch and dinner served there will be one dollar.

The evening will bring a round of fellowship. Here the group will discuss their experiences and accomplishments of the day.

Are you interested in the work camp? Well, if you are, pick up an application in the Chaplain's office, but have it returned by Nov. 7. Selection is made upon receipt and those selected will be notified promptly.

There is plenty of healthy Christian work for every one. So, don't stay behind; dig in and give us a hand in making this work camp a success.

KALLISTA ADS

(Special from the Kallista)

The Kallista, your Wagner College Yearbook, needs your help. This year the book will be the largest ever in commemoration of our 75th year. The book is costing $7,500 to publish. Our allotment from the Student Association is $6,000. Simple arithmetic shows a deficit of $1,500. This amount of money must be brought in through advertisements.

Unless we succeed in filling fifteen full pages of ads we will be faced with the alternative of going into the red, or as was necessary last year, to charge you at least $1.00 for your copy of the yearbook.

We do not wish to place another extra on your already strained budget. You have already paid for your copy of the Kallista through your comprehensive fee; the amount we receive from your Student Association is paid by you. We are aware of the many extras you have to pay although your comprehensive fee is supposed to be all inclusive: identification cards, parking fees, dormitory dues, etc. We do not want to add another to the list that keeps growing. So please, won't you help us fill those fifteen pages? Our rates for advertisements are:

1/8 of a page	$ 15.00
1/4 of a page	$ 30.00
1/2 of a page	$ 50.00
Full page	$100.00
1/4 page ad with a photograph	$35.00
1/2 page and full page ads with photograph at no extra charge.

If you have an advertisement for us, or any suggestions as to where we may contact potential advertisers please write to:

AL WAGNER
KALLISTA BUSINESS MANAGER
BOX 110
WAGNER COLLEGE STUDENT MAIL

And don't forget the 7th of December when the Four Freshmen will be here jointly sponsored by your S. A. and the Kallista.

U.N. TRIP

The International Relations Club in conjunction with the N. S. A. is sponsoring a field trip to the United Nations on November 24.

The group plans to leave Wagner early Sunday morning and sit in on a special conference at the U.N. The co-sponsor of this program the National Student Association originally organized this program in conjunction with its United Nations Week which was observed two weeks ago.

The groups have asked that all people who are interested in joining the field trip to sign up in the Hawk's Nest on Wednesday, Nov. 13.

Faith and Life Week

Faith and Life Week, 1958 was introduced to the student body at the October 30 chapel service. During this week, which is to be March 2-6, leading Christian speakers will attempt to help students to find the Christian answers to their daily problems. Dr. Joseph Sittler, member of the University of Chicago, will be the Federated Theological Faculty of the main speaker. Other scheduled speakers include Dr. Buell Gallagher, a Congregational minister and President of City College of New York.

Anxiety is a fear developed within the individual which has become detached from its original stimulus and has spread into other areas of life. The Faith and Life Week Committee will aim to examine these basic fears from the Christian viewpoint and provide an answer for worldwide as well as individual concerns.

The Executive Committee of Faith and Life Week includes: Dr. David M. Delo, Honorary Chairman; Dr. Murvel E. Annan, Chairman; The Reverend Paul Kirsch, Executive Secretary; Joan Henke, Gunther Bischoff, Student Co-Chairmen; Hattie Meier, Secretary; Paul Walley, Treasurer.

Other committee Co-Chairmen are: Kathryn Wahlers, Stanley Phillips, Book Display; Ann Paschke, Ulrich Keems, Breakfast Retreat; Sally Reibel, Charles Beigner, Continuation and Evaluation; Miss Susette Meyer, Faculty; Diane Borst, Paul Walley, Finance; Hope Machina, Rudy Oudheusden, Forums; Carol Grele, Henry Heil, Hospitality; Karen Lehault, Karl Kamp, Publicity; Mildred Nelson, June Boleraczki, Carin Reinhold, Peter Anderson, Societies; Catherine Heller, Richard Zimmerman, Worship.

Students who wish to serve on any of these committees for Faith and Life Week may sign up in the Chaplain's Office.

Junior Class Meeting

The big thing on the 1957-58 agenda of the Junior Class is the annual Junior Prom, which will be held on February 14. Preparations for the prom are now being made under the leadership of co-chairmen Elaine Petrella and Harry Steeve.

Also discussed at the class meeting held last Thursday were possible ways of collecting dues, and means of increasing attendance at meetings. The Class of 1959 was spirited and enthusiastic as Freshmen and -Sophs in the years past, and that continuing enthusiasm is needed now in order that Junior Class activities can be the best yet.

And by the way, if you are among the 84 Juniors who have not paid class dues, treasurer Dick Piccini will be glad to accept your $2.00 now.

CURATOR TO SPEAK

HISTORY IN THE MAKING

by Charles Bempohl

Many Americans today are disturbed about the newest Russian scientific marvel — Sputnik the artificial satellite. The true significance of this event is not the scientific implications of a man-made moon nor is it the three-stage rocket which is able to reach the real moon itself — for we too will soon be able to duplicate these achievements. It is rather the fact that Soviet Russia has scored a tremendous psychological victory over the western world.

The average Russian citizen, not too long ago, was unable to gain an education. Now, Russia claims to have the finest educational system in the world. Russia just 40 years ago was struggling to overthrow her government. Twenty-eight years later it was able to defeat the greatest Army in history. Russia is a nation that has adopted a revolutionary new economic system and has now turned that system into an effective instrument in the combating of the economic structure of the richest country in the world.

The question — why, with all the natural, industrial, and monetary resources at our command do we have to come in second to this country? The answer — it is the old story of the tortoise and the hare; however, the goal to be attained is not merely the breaking of a string at a finish line, but world peace and possibly domination. Let us hope that our leaders realize this fact and are able to wake up the American hare in time.

FOUR FRESHMEN TICKET SALE

The Student Association in an all-out drive to make the event a financial success, has launched its ticket sale for the concert which is to be given by the Four Freshmen at the Wagner gym on Dec. 7, at 8 p.m.

Tickets have been distributed to campus leaders and other interested people on campus with the hope of reaching as many persons as possible. Announcements and tickets for the event are also being mailed out to high schools and colleges within this area.

Mr. Alan Kamens, President of the Student Association has stated that it is the first concert in a series of proposed concerts by jazz and classical musicians. This being the initial attempt at such a program makes it even more imperative that it be successful.

On Thursday, November 14, at 10 a.m., there will be a Student Association Convocation in the Gymnasium. Mr. E. Thomas Gilliard, Associate Curator of the Department of Birds at the American Museum of Natural History, is the main speaker for the program.

Mr. Gilliard was born in York, Pennsylvania, on Nov. 23, 1912, and has traveled to many parts of the world to do research in ornithology. He is an authority on South American ornithology and on birds of the Philippines and of New Guinea, especially the birds of paradise and bowerbirds.

He began his association with the Museum as a volunteer trainee in 1932, becoming a laboratory assistant in the Bird Department in 1935. In 1950 he was named to his present position, after having first served as Assistant Curator.

Mr. Gilliard's publications include numerous scientific and popular articles in such magazines as Life and National Geographic, and a three-volume book entitled The Animal Kingdom.

The Convocation program will also include music by Students of Voice at Wagner.

FROSH-SOPH MEETINGS

FRESHMEN

The class treasurer, Lydia Haas, brought to the attention of the Class that a number of freshmen have not paid their dues yet. President Tony Caselnova announced that he and Lynn Ward are selling tickets for the concert which is to be given by the Four Freshmen.

Discussion was held and plans were made in regard to a hayride which the Class will sponsor sometime in late November or early Dec.

An Activities Committee was formed in the hope of resolving the problem of lack of male attendance at meetings and class functions. This Committee consists of the five executive officers, one representative from each dormitory, and one off-hill student.

SOPHOMORE

The class of '60 of Wagner College last Thursday decided to let their money earn interest for them. After a brief discussion on the floor by Brian O'Connor, Treasurer of the class, and Karl Kamp, it was unanimously decided to place the class money in an interest earning savings account. Karl and Brian were appointed by Pres. Kenn Kerr to investigate the opportunities offered by the various Savings Banks on the Island.

The question of class faculty advisor was raised. It was decided that Dr. Coles would be requested to fill that post.

EDUCATION

Recently we received a publication entitled "The Small College Annual." While leafing through it we noticed a short piece by Woodrow Wilson called "The Spirit of Learning."

"The object of a liberal training is not learning, but discipline and the enlightenment of the mind. The educated man is to be discovered by this point of view, by the temper of his mind, by his attitude toward life and his fair way of thinking. He can discriminate, he can combine ideas and perceive whether they lead; he has insight and comprehension. His mind is a practiced instrument of appreciation. He is more apt to contribute light than heat to a discussion, and will oftener than another show the power of uniting the elements of a difficult subject in a whole view; he has the knowledge of the world which no one can have who knows only his own generation or only his own task."

Every so often one will meet an upper-classman from college who asks himself "What have I learned?" "How much do I know?" We ask you now if this is the test of an educated man.

An educated man is a thinking man; a man who is able to cope successfully with himself and his fellow man. He is a man who must stand out as an individual in society. He is not a sheep in a flock. An educated man is one who is concerned with all that is around him. He is obligated to question every deed that is done, to deny falsity, and to inquire into the many mysteries of life.

The role of an educated man is a difficult one, but it is one we all must consider while at college. We do not say that your thinking must be only channeled in the direction of academic subjects, but rather we say look to those around you . . . your friends, fraternities, sororities, your Student Association. They all want you and need you as a thinking companion. It is your job as a college student to constantly consider the problems of your school and various groups. This is your training ground for life, and the most important part of life is consideration of problems. We are learning to think and we must think in order to learn.

INSPIRATION

Students attending classes in the administration Building last week found themselves travelling through a maze of wires and lights, that were constantly moved from place to place in preparation for a new Wagner film. In some cases, classrooms became sets, and the students actors in what seemed an impossibly short time. In reality this new film has been in preparation since last spring and is but one more facet of the development program for this 75th Anniversary year.

One particular department, and group of students, however, gave of their time and talents unstintingly and it is of them we would like to make special mention. Dr. Steen and the choir spent an entire afternoon being filmed for this movie, and providing the background music for many scenes. Earlier this year, when the United Lutheran Church filmed "The Living Church" the Wagner Choir was again called upon to provide musical settings, as well as appear in the film.

We feel it is the devotion and sincerity of Dr. Steen which inspires the choir members to produce their effective, long-remembered concerts. Their annual three-week tour, which has taken them to approximately half of the 48 states, as well as Canada, has become one of the best ways of acquainting the public with Wagner College, and at the same time performing a ministry of music. Choir concerts are remembered many years after this or that speaker has been forgotten.

The record made by the choir has found its way into many homes and churches across the country. It bears the undeniable stamp of the greatness of the choir director who has developed the group into the enthusiastic, cohesive, and inspiring choir that it is today. We look forward to the Annual Christmas concert in December, which provides the setting and inspiration for the holidays. But most of all we salute the choir, and its director, Dr. Steen.

The Musical World

by Guy Fein

"VANESSA"

One of the more unusual features of this year's musical season will be the first performance of Samuel Barber's new opera "Vanessa" by the Metropolitan Opera Company. It is indeed to Barber's already fine credit that one of the world's best opera companies has designed his work for a premier performance.

But notice must also be given, strangely enough, to Barber's librettists. In general, librettists remain far in the background, and are mere tools for the composer to show his skill. It cannot be denied, on the other hand, that the librettist goes far in making the success of an operatic work.

All this highlights the fact that the author for the script of "Vanessa" is the illustrious Gian-Carlo Menotti. And this is the most unusual feature of all: never in musical history has a composer of Barber's stature had another composer of equal rank, subjugate himself, merely in the role of librettist.

The libretti of Menotti's musical dramas are often the least mentioned aspects of his work; they cannot be overlooked, but seldom receive the tremendous credit they deserve. Menotti is, it must be remembered, the chief exponent of the musical drama, in which the music and the word are integrated to form a fine fabric: a drama of taut qualities. Hence, his ever-changing musical style: the gay musical comedy of "The Telephone," savage modernity combined with a Puccini-like lyricism in "The Consul," and the ecclesiastical style of "The Saint of Bleeker Street"; all attest his dramatic skill.

MENOTTI LIKE CONRAD

Perhaps the strangest fact is that Menotti, born in Italy, did not come here until his twenty-first birthday. Like the Victorian novelist, Joseph Conrad, he always writes directly in his adopted English.

It is the subtle touches that make Menotti's libretti sparkle. Take for example "the Consul." The inferences given the little phrase "a pane of glass," the sweeping lyricism of the trio "Now O lips say good-bye," the cloaked meaning of "We shall meet each other again," the poetry of the octet "In endless waiting rooms," the brilliance and violence of the drama itself (drama as drama, not just a foil for a singer's skill), all give emphasis to one fact: this man knows how to write.

Of Barber's music, there is much to be said. But space does not allow. At all events, with the collaboration of these two giants: Menotti and Barber, "Vanessa" appears well worth a Metropolitan premier.

C. C. C. DATES

The date for Wagner's Campus Community Chest Carnival has been announced by Co-Chairmen Ann Paschke and Pete Welker. The Carnival will take place Friday night, February 7, 1958.

The "C.C.C." is the annual charity drive at Wagner. Proceeds go to many charitable institutions on the Island.

Those appointed to head up the drive are Mary Chichester and Chas. Biegner as Co-Chairmen of the Carnival; Nadine Dittmer, Secretary; Gary Santmire, Chairman of Solicitations; and Cara Schwarzkopf, who will be in charge of Publicity.

SORORITY

As the strains of "Good Night, Sweetheart" died away happy couples headed home after an enjoyable night at the "Rose Ball," AOII's annual open dance. Before the dance sisters and their dates were entertained at the home of Claire Kvande. The newly pinned sisters were sung to with the AOII Sweetheart Song . . . Homecoming afternoon an alumnae chapter of Delta Lambda was formed. The officers of the chapter are:

President .....	Ellen Spalding
Secretary .....	Bev. Bettinger
Treasurer .....	Joan Castorina

The next meeting will be held on December 15 in the ISC room . . .

Alpha Delta Pi inducted 23 pledges into sisterhood on November 2. The "older" sisters entertained the "newer" sisters with a dinner at Cellini's. At the dinner Carol Bean was given a plaque as outstanding pledge, Mary Chichester for scholarship and Barbara McGahy for best essay . . . With the induction of ADII all the Spring '57 pledge classes have been inducted and again it is time to think seriously about rushes.

The Intersorority Tea on Sunday afternoon was the first step of rushing. Here the sisters got a chance to meet the girls interested and the girls got a chance to look over the sisters. Joining a sorority is a life-long pledge and must be taken seriously. Just because your best friend joins a sorority, doesn't decide that one is for you. There are a lot more people in a sorority than just your best friend. Think seriously about the aims of the sororities and what the sisters stand for. There's a lot of work that goes along with the fun of a sorority and you've got to be able to balance this work and fun with your studies. After all, your parents didn't send you to college to join a sorority; they sent you to learn something.

If you can keep your scholarship standing and still be an active sister, you are in a position to think about which one you would like to pledge. Of course, this is a two-sided affair. The sisters have to want you too. The best way to work at this is to meet people and people and more people. And you don't have to sit in the Hawk's Nest all day waiting for people to come along so you can meet them. This campus is so full of activities that they can't always find place for them on the calendar. In all the organizations and committees there are people and that's what you want to meet, isn't it?

You freshmen girls have another semester til you can pledge, but don't wait til the week before Spring rushing to start meeting people. Wagner is about the most friendly college you can find anywhere, so get your smile out of moth balls and wear it!

Dear Dr. Delo — Yes, there was something in the ADII boxes . . . These are the facts . . .

FRATERNITY

The fall open rushes are rapidly approaching and all non-fraternity men wishing to join a fraternity may present themselves to the fraternities. The first open rush is Nov. 18. The complete schedule will be printed next week.

The Fifth Column

by Larry Stewart

LET'S SOBER UP

To head a column, "Let's Sober Up," is to imply that we have been inebriated which is not strictly the case. The events in the last few weeks, however, have certainly effected the emotional atmosphere around campus like a double dry orange juice on a empty stomach.

Consequently, if we have been stumbling about recently, it is no small wonder but as any reputable gourmet of the wicked liquid would tell you, the longer under the influence the more devastating are the after-effects.

I think we all genuinely regret the resignation of Dr. Delo, especially because of the splendid work he has done in the past five years. But Dr. Delo has made his decision, and if we are to respect his judgement in personal matters as much as we have respected it in regard to the decisions he has made as college President, then we must conclude that it was not done impetuously but after much intelligent reflection and to the best interests of all concerned.

Certainly, a man who has proven his ability to administer so well is undoubtedly destined to achieve even greater glories in anything he may choose to do.

DOWN WITH EMOTIONS

Thus, I think it would be very wise if we discarded the practice of drowning our emotions in more emotions, of seeking to place the blame of a lamentable situation on any group when for all we know, and we must admit that we aren't in the most advantageous position to know all there may be to know, that no one is really to blame but that the dynamics of human relationships unfortunately do not always operate without conflict.

So let's gather a little perspective, let's remember all the things that have dominated the preceeding five years, the advances we have made and the bright future ahead, and let's make these last days memorable days for Dr. Delo instead of one of undirected criticisms and resentments, and most importantly, let's get down to the business of education.

In Case You're . . .

. . . interested the next issue of the Wagnerian will appear on Nov. 21. If your group, club, fraternity, or sorority has any news or announcements, drop them in the Wag box in the Dean's Office before Nov. 18.

Incidentally, we have a problem and we thought perhaps some of you could help us. We have tried to come out as often as possible with a bigger and nicer looking paper each time. We hope to be able to continue this policy; however, this costs money. More money in fact than we have in our account. We also have advertising but it is still not enough to cover our expenses.

We think that we have the answer to the problem, but we will need your help. Starting this month we are going to start a subscription drive, which will take effect in January. We are offering 11 issues of the Wagnerian for $2.00.

If your parents or friends are interested in learning more about Wagner now is their chance. All we ask from you is the names and addresses of people who might be interested in subscribing. Please mail these suggestions to the Wag, c/o Miss Sally Bailey.

CONFIDENTIAL

Obviously, the emphasis is on a good first impression. Not all the brothers of a fraternity will know each man, and the impression created at the rushes may be permanent. Needless to say, being punctual and coming in proper dress are important considerations.

After the open rushes, to which all non-fraternity men are invited, the brothers will send bids to those men they would like to look at a second time for the closed rush. Then they will extend invitations to pledge to those men they want as brothers.

Immediately after the last closed rush on Dec. 12, the bids from all the fraternities will be released, and silence week will start. Bids must be returned by Friday noon, Dec. 18.

Previously, only students who had completed one semester of work at Wagner were eligible to pledge, but the IFC has just passed a new ruling to overcome the advantage of APO, which is not an IFC member. Now anyone not on probation may pledge a frat.

The IFC has also announced that there will be only one formal period of rushing per year. A specified period will be set aside during the Spring Semester when bids may be sent out. Silence week will still be observed then.

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia inducted Robert Bauer, Henry Heil, and Joseph Adams on Oct. 30. They are in a pledging period.

TKE drops us a line that the Four Freshmen, jazz stars appearing here at Wagner on Dec. 7, are all TKE brothers from Miami University.

The Delta Nu dance will be held on Nov. 22, so keep that date open. A unique souvenir of this dance will be given at the door.

A note to all fraternity secretaries to keep in touch with me at Box 139, Student Mail.

THE WARMUP

by Scott Andrus

Anybody passing by the athletic fields these days must think it has been the site of a battle. The lush green carpet of grass we all knew so well now bears a striking resemblance to a piece of ground under construction. One of the gleaming white alabaster goal posts seems to be missing. The entire situation is very strange.

There's a new look among the students, too. No longer does the talk concern itself with bad breaks, untimely fumbles, or weak reserves. Such comments as "What a great game" are applied to a muddy exhibition played in weather which would have caused anyone with half a brain to clear out. And, I'm told, after the game was over many of the onlookers lingered at the scene, performing certain operations in the field of carpentry.

After too many years, Wagner had finally won a home football game, and a little whoopin' it up seemed very much in order.

WEST RETURNS TO TEAM

an encouraging sight in the gym is the picture of one Charles "Lonny" West making with the basketball. West managed a respectable 24 points per game average two years ago, leading the Hawks to a 20-3 record. The leg which kept him out of the game last year has been pronounced ready to go by the medicine men, and Lonny is reportedly jumping as high as he ever did. The word here is that this year's team can be counted on for a winning season.

Seahawk end Al Ferrie appears to have this pass from Trentalange all wrapped up in the fourth period of the Ursinus game, but the wet pigskin slipped through his hands.

WAGNER PLAYS IN LEAGUE

The Middle Atlantic Conference (the story elsewhere on this page) has cleared away all obstacles and commenced league play this year. The conference itself has been in existence for years, and plans for league competition go back a ways, but scheduling took considerable time.

The Wagner basketball team will play in a league this year for the first time. The Hawks will compete in the northern division of the newly-formed Middle Atlantic Conference basketball league. Eleven of the 24 games scheduled will be with MAC foes.

Each team in either the northern or the southern division will play a minimum of nine conference games, including at least six in its own division. All conference games in either division will count in the final standings.

There is a possibility that a playoff will be arranged between the two division champs. There will be an automatic bid to the NCAA small college tournament for the conference champion.

Seniors Charles "Lonny" West and Tom Drake will captain this year's squad. West, a 6-5 center who was high-scorer for the 1955-56 team, sat on the sidelines with an injured leg last year, but is now entirely sound.

Two years ago he received honorable mention in the NCAA district two picks, which cover the entire east coast. Drake, 5-10, was a regular starting guard on the same team, but was handicapped last year by a bad ankle.

The schedule this year includes games with such strong teams as Iona, St. Francis of Pennsylvania, and St. Peter's, as well as another tilt with Manhattan in Madison Square Garden. The most notable addition to the schedule is an away game with Niagara. The Hofstra Tournament has been discontinued.

The Wagner College Seahawks, scoring touchdowns in the 2nd and 4th quarters, chalked up their first home victory and their 2nd victory of the season by defeating the Bears of Ursinus College 13-0.

The Seahawks, as they have been doing continuously all season, drew first blood (or should I say "water"). Early in the first quarter, the Seahawks sustained a drive which featured the passing of Don Trentalange and the ball carrying of John Mangiante and Dave Hahn. The climaxing play of this period was a 35-yard run by John Mangiante, who swept right through the entire Bear team. The play, however, was nullified by a 15-yard clipping penalty.

At the end of the first quarter, Wagner was in possession of the ball on the Bears' 16-yard line, this time determined not to have the door shut in their face. Don Trentalange threw what would have been a touchdown pass to Ali Ferrie, but the latter was a victim of interference hold. The pass was ruled incomplete, but a 15-yard penalty put the ball on the Ursinus Bears' 1-yard line. From that point, John Mangiante crashed over for the touchdown. Dick Hagerman split the uprights with his extra point try, and the score was 7-0.

HAHN RECOVERS KEY FUMBLE

Early in the 4th quarter, with the Bears in possession of the ball at midfield, which was literally a lake as a result of the heavy rain, last year's little All-American mention from Ursinus, Bob Famous, started grinding out yardage for the Bears. However, the Wagner defense which featured the outstanding playing all afternoon of Charlie Jopp, Ralph Cannarozzi, Pete Haupt, Bill Bergin, and Lou Petroni, stiffened at this point and on a vicious tackle made by Charlie Jopp, Bob Famous fumbled the ball and it was recovered by Dave Hahn.

In possession at midfield, Don Trentalange faded back and threw a 35-yard pass to George Kling, who made a great catch on the 15-yard line and galloped through the mud and the Bears' secondary for a touchdown, but once again the TD was called back because of a penalty. The Seahawks, bidding for an insurance tally, did not let this stop them. Their three leading ground gainers, John Mangiante, Dave Hahn, and Jim Giordano went into high gear and brought the ball to the Ursinus 11-yard line. Then Jim Giordano crashed right up the middle and bulled his way over for the touch-down. The try for the extra point was smothered.

HAWKS CONTROL PLAY

Lou Petroni then kicked off to the Bears' 28-yard line, but again their drive was stopped when the fast charging Wagner line forced second string quarterback, Bob Hassler, to throw an inaccurate pass which was intercepted by Don Trentalange. Wagner controlled the ball for the rest of the game. The alert Wagner line, both offensively and defensively, played outstanding ball.

Especially noticeable for outstanding key plays were Tony Franchina, a lineman who intercepted a pass, and Al Ferrie who was knocking down passes all afternoon and catching a few himself. Of course, the passing of Don Trentalange, who hit for 7 out of 15, was fantastic. The running of John Mangiante, Dave Hahn, and Jim Giordano made the mud-covered Green and White jerseys of the Seahawks look like gold at the final whistle.

It strikes me as a well-spent effort. It will give direction to the schedule, and the automatic bid to the NCAA small college tourney will provide incentive, particularly as the Hawks have a fine chance of winning it. It is probable that the soccer team will join a similar league next year.

Wagner's baby cross-country team, competing in its first full season, has almost turned out to be still-born on account of Asian Flu. Only one man, Roger Alder, was able to make it to the first meet. He was joined by Mike Iosue, Joe Fritsche, Don Sprague, and Yours Truly for the second, but lack of training and convalescent weakness made the meet a disaster for Wagner. With the flu having about run its course, a better showing is anticipated in future meets.
