

JONES MEMORIAL LIBRARY
2311 MEMORIAL AVENUE
LYNCHBURG, VA 24501

(434) 846-0501

B.P.O.E. (ELKS), LYNCHBURG (VA) LODGE NO. 321 PAPERS

The papers include postcards from Elks serving in Europe in World War I, a letter about the death of an Elk from influenza, and a bill for the rental of the Academy of Music for a memorial service held on 7 December 1919.

B.P.O. ELKS, LODGE NO. 321

Lynchburg Lodge No. 321, B.P.O. Elks, first appears in the Lynchburg City Directory of 1896. [Chataigne's Lynchburg City Directory, 1896 (Richmond: Chataigne Directory Co., 1896), p. 21.] The Lodge was located at 510 Main Street from that time until 1978. In 1979, the Lodge was re-located to Old Mill Road, Lynchburg, and it continues there at present. [1979 Lynchburg (Campbell County) Virginia Directory (Richmond: Hill Directory Co., 1979), p. 187.]