RADFORD IRON COMPANY MEMORANDUM OF CHARGES

The collection consists of a memorandum, dated at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 19 January 1871, of charges made by the Radford Iron Company during November-December 1870.

RADFORD IRON COMPANY

The Radford Iron Company, located on the New River in Montgomery County, Virginia, was incorporated in 1867, for the mining of coal, iron and other ores. The capital stock of the company was not to exceed two million dollars, with shares of $100 each. The company also had the authority "to purchase and hold lands not exceeding twenty thousand acres."
