ELISABETH WILSON HODGES

Elisabeth Anne Wilson was born in Raphine, Virginia, the daughter of James Moore Wilson and Blanche Odessa Miller. She graduated from Longwood College with a degree in elementary education and English. She also earned a Master's degree in special education from the University of Virginia. She taught as teacher of the blind at the Virginia School for the Deaf and the Blind. Later, she taught in the schools of Lynchburg, Virginia. The last twelve years of her career were spent as a certified public school librarian.

Elisabeth married William Long Hodges on 16 June 1972 in Raphine, Virginia. He was born in Forest, Virginia, the son of James Barnett Hodges and Frances Hartwell Long.

Seeking to preserve family history, Elisabeth completed two books on the Miller and Wilson families - They Came to Rockingham (2004) and These Came to Augusta and Rockbridge (2015).
