

JONES MEMORIAL LIBRARY
2311 MEMORIAL AVENUE
LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA 24501

(434) 846-0501

WILLIAM SPENCER HANNAH DIARY

The collection contains the diary of William Spencer HANNAH, ca. April 1862 – April 1865. The diary describes troop movements of the 46th Virginia Infantry through King & Queen County, King William County, Hanover County, Richmond, Petersburg, Chesterfield County in Virginia and the Charleston area in South Carolina.

A transcription of the diary with annotations is available in The Diary of Second Lieutenant William S. Hannah, Company, B, 46th Virginia Infantry, April 1862-April 1865, by Kenneth S. White (Call No. E605 .H36). A microfilm copy of the diary is available in the Albert and Shirley Small Special Collections Library, University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Virginia (Accession No. 7454).

FOLDER 1 Diary of William Spencer Hannah