ABSTRACTS OF TITLES
LYNCH AND TUNSTALL PROPERTIES, LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA

The collection contains title examinations and supporting documents for the Lynch and Tunstall properties at Ninth and Main Streets in Lynchburg, Virginia, prior to a sale to Fidelity National Bank in 1968. The properties were originally part of a land grant in 1750 from King George II to Charles Lynch, Sr., of Albemarle County, Virginia, later becoming part of the original town of Lynchburg in 1786. Titles are traced through the families of Lynch, Christian, Dearing, Fauntleroy, Tunstall and Ward.
