

JONES MEMORIAL LIBRARY
2311 MEMORIAL AVENUE
LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA 24501

(434) 846-0501

MUSIC LOVERS' LEAGUE (LYNCHBURG, VA) LETTER TO SUBSCRIBERS

Letter, dated 10 June 1926 to subscribers asking for support for the upcoming season, which includes "three concerts by distinguished artists who have not appeared here before." It also provides a financial report for the previous year, a list of officers, and a list of artists that have appeared in Lynchburg since 1919 under the management of the League. Artists included the Paulist Choir, Alberto Salvi, the Russian Symphonic Choir, and the Elshuca Trio.

MUSIC LOVERS' LEAGUE (LYNCHBURG, VA)

The Music Lovers' League of Lynchburg was organized around 1919 in Lynchburg, Va. The League presented programs of professional musicians performing in Lynchburg, often at Smith Memorial Building at Randolph-Macon Woman's College. At the beginning of the Great Depression, the League was dissolved.