GARLAND FAMILY PAPERS

This microfilm collection contains the papers, 1762-1907 (bulk 1816-1857), of the Garland family of Lynchburg, Virginia, particularly Samuel Garland and the law firm of Samuel and Maurice H. Garland, and the mercantile firm of Garland & Roy. Includes accounts, business records, correspondence, legal records, and deeds, primarily relating to court cases, business dealings, the settlement of estates, and the purchasing of goods and services. Also includes the business and personal correspondence of John B. Roy. Of note is a letter from Thomas Jefferson to Samuel Garland, 4 August 1823, regarding the payment of a debt from the proceeds of land deal in Bedford County, Virginia, and a report on the Battle at Arkansas Post on 10-11 January 1863, written by Robert R. Garland, Colonel of the 6th Texas Infantry. The last items on the reels are letters from various Garland family members to Robert Alonzo Brock concerning the genealogy of the Garland family.
