BLUE RIDGE CHAPTER, DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

Blue Ridge Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, the third chapter in Virginia, was chartered 2 October 1895, in Lynchburg. Among its early projects was the placing of a bronze marker honoring John LYNCH, founder of the town of Lynchburg. The Chapter has also contributed books and microfilm to Jones Memorial Library, and organized the Charles Lynch Chapter, Children of the American Revolution. Two other chapters were formed by Blue Ridge Chapter, Lynchburg Chapter in 1909, and Poplar Forest Chapter in 1913. In 1970, the Chapter sponsored the publication of Marriages of Campbell County, Virginia 1782-1810.
