

was prevented — He was well nursed — & had the best medical attention — but nothing could save him — as the foot was very bad from the first — He often told me, in the early stage, that he was doing very well — but it was considered a very bad omen from the beginning — But what matters it now! He is safely housed in Heaven! where he will suffer no more!

"Be ye also ready" and meet him there!

He departed Saturday evening the 13th of August — 1864 — Peace to his ashes!
