WILLIAM ANDERSON BALLOWE (1837-1907) MISCELLANEOUS PAPERS

The collection includes printed summons, issued by the clerk of court or magistrate to William A. Ballowe, constable, in Amherst County, Virginia. Also included are notes and accounts of debtors for payment of delinquent accounts and other miscellaneous court documents.

WILLIAM ANDERSON BALLOWE (1837-around 1907)

William Anderson Ballowe, son of Thomas Leonard Ballowe and Anne Anderson, was born 10 July 1837 in Nelson County, Virginia. He enlisted in Co. C, 34th Virginia Infantry during the Civil War. He married 14 December 1864 in Amherst County, Emma Fannie Shelton, the daughter of John Poindexter Shelton and Sarah H.R. Bell. Ballowe was a farmer, a constable for the Elon district of Amherst, and a Justice of the Peace for Amherst County.

According to the Bedford Bulletin of 17 January 1907, one W.A. Ballowe, of Amherst County, died in Amherst County "recently."
