OLD DOMINION CHAPTER, UNITED DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY

In 1896, Ruth H. EARLY, a member of the Lucy Minor Otey Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy (now the Kirkwood Otey Chapter, UDC), met with other interested women and organized the Old Dominion Chapter, UDC, in Lynchburg, Virginia. The group was chartered on 9 July 1896. Among the stated purposes of the Chapter were the "caring for veterans, collecting and preserving relics of the war, and perpetuating the memory of Confederate heroes by promoting friendship among their relatives and survivors." The Chapter worked toward the erection of the soldier's monument on Court Street and acquired the old fortifications, known as Fort Early, to preserve a part of the war history of Lynchburg.
