

JONES MEMORIAL LIBRARY
2311 MEMORIAL AVENUE
LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA 24501

(434) 846-0501

POEMS OF LIZZIE C. HALL

The collection consists of poems, written between 1927 and 1935, including religious and memorial poems, written for family members and for special occasions. The volume includes a memorial poem written for the poet's father, Philip Chambers, a memorial for James Monroe Clarke, a poem read at the installation of Rev. William Ravenell as pastor of Court Street Baptist Church, Lynchburg, and a poem for Edward Christian Glass on his fiftieth year as Superintendent of Lynchburg City Schools. Several published poems are interspersed throughout the volume.

ELIZABETH (LIZZIE) CHAMBERS HALL (1874-1965)

Elizabeth (Lizzie) Chambers was the daughter of Philip Bolling Chambers and Annie B. Lumpkin, was born 16 February 1874, in Lynchburg, Virginia. She married William Thomas Hall, pastor of Baptist churches in Danville, Virginia, 1897-1907, and Roxborough, Pennsylvania. She is buried in Old City Cemetery, Lynchburg, Virginia.