

JONES MEMORIAL LIBRARY
2311 Memorial Avenue
Lynchburg, Virginia 24501

(434) 846-0501

HENRY (HARRY) L. ALBERTI (d. 1916) PHOTOGRAPH ALBUM

The collection consists of an album of photographs taken by Henry (Harry) L. Alberti during his stay in Lynchburg, Va. It includes a collection of exterior and interior photographs of homes and buildings in Lynchburg and the surrounding area, including the Peaks of Otter, Natural Bridge, Monticello, and the University of Virginia. The collection also includes photographs of local soldiers preparing to leave for the Spanish American War in 1898 and of the artists' studio of impressionist artist, Bernhard Gutmann.

HENRY (HARRY) L. ALBERTI, d. 1916

Henry (Harry) L. Alberti was associated with the tobacco business in Lynchburg and Bedford City, Virginia. He returned to his native Germany in 1904 and was engaged in a brokerage business, representing large interests in Egypt. On his return to Germany he enlisted in the Red Cross service and later joined the regular army. While serving in the army, he was decorated for bravery and was promoted to lieutenant. He died on the battlefield on October 15 1916. [Obituary, Lynchburg News, 24 November 1916, p. 6 col. 4.]