

JONES MEMORIAL LIBRARY
2311 MEMORIAL AVENUE
LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA 24501

(434) 846-0501

GEORGE WASHINGTON CLEMENT (1819-1910) ACCOUNT BOOKS

The collection includes two account books (ca.1840-1858) kept by George Washington CLEMENT for his Mt. Zion farm property and for his store. Mt. Zion is located in Campbell County, Virginia.

[BOX 1] Account Book 1857-1858

[BOX 2] Account Book 1840-1850

GEORGE WASHINGTON CLEMENT (1819-1910)

George Washington CLEMENT, son of Adam CLEMENT, Jr., and Nancy ALEXANDER, was born 1 March 1819 in Campbell County, Virginia. He married 2 January 1841 Sarah Isabella CLEMENT, daughter of Dr. George Washington CLEMENT and Stella SMITH, of Franklin County, Virginia. He operated a store and farm near Mt. Zion in Campbell County. George Washington CLEMENT died 10 September 1910.

[Mrs. N. E. Clement, "Notes on the Clement Family," Mss., Juliet Fauntleroy Papers, MS1387, Folder 2-9, Jones Memorial Library, Lynchburg, VA; Marshall Wingfield, Marriage Bonds of Franklin County, Virginia 1786-1858 (Baltimore: Clearfield, 1991), p. 59; George Washington Clement Account Books, Mss., MS1049, Jones Memorial Library, Lynchburg, VA; 1850 Census, Campbell County, VA, National Archives and Records Service, M-432, Roll 938, p. 278, Dwelling 612, Family 622; 1870 Census, Campbell County, VA, National Archives and Records Service, M-593, Roll 1638, p. 72, Dwelling 996, Family 1036. Although the marriage record indicates the bride to be "Sarah J. Clement," examination of the census records and the account books reveals the name to be "Sarah I. Clement," perhaps "Sarah Isabella Clement," which corresponds with information given in "Notes on the Clement Family."]