...Camp Cuba Libre...

Jacksonville, Fla., _____ 1898.

arrived from sentinal duty and all active service except drawing for the sick & wounded it was through the efforts of my friend Sergt Snead whom I met while at the Blues Armory, that my chances are the good as they seem to be.

Right here I stopped for dinner and while eating, your letter of the 10th was received and was more than glad to hear for the reason it was my first from home, with the exception Bibby + Smith + Jones came a letter from
