

JONES MEMORIAL LIBRARY
2311 MEMORIAL AVENUE
LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA 24501

(434) 846-0501

SARAH ANN WARWICK HALSEY (1845-1918) LETTERS

The collection includes a letter to Mrs. HALSEY from Gilbert B. WALDEN, 10 May 1888, about his visit to Lynchburg. There is also included a note from Clara BARTON, Washington, D.C., dated 14 March 1891, about Mrs. HALSEY's class visiting her. Miss BARTON also wrote a poem and inscribed it to the class. Elizabeth H. JACOBS also wrote to Mrs. HALSEY, 6 July 1910, expressing her condolences at the death of Mrs. HALSEY's brother. Virginia C. HETH, of Blacksburg, Virginia, wrote inviting Mrs. HALSEY to share a house with her.

SARAH ANN WARWICK HALSEY (1845-1918)

Sarah Ann Warwick DANIEL, daughter of Judge William DANIEL, Jr., and Sarah Ann WARWICK, was born 20 June 1845, in Lynchburg, Virginia. She married 7 March 1866 Don Peters HALSEY in Lynchburg. A member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Mrs. HALSEY died 16 July 1918 and was buried in Spring Hill Cemetery.

["Don Peters Halsey," Robert C. Glass, Carter Glass, Jr., Virginia Democracy, Vol. 2 (Springfield, IL: Democratic Historical Assoc., 1937), p. 312; Lynchburg Daily Virginian, 8 March 1866, p. 3 col. 2; Lynchburg News, 17 July 1918, p. 6 col. 4.]