to Mrs. G.J.Scott of Cleveland, N.C., to be forwarded to Archibald Henderson of Chapel Hill, N.C. after I make the copy.

"My dear Brother.

you have not wrote me a line for a considerable time, at least I have not for a long time received a line from you. I begin to be impatient to hear from you; and shall by the first favourable opportunity expect a line.

What has not a little encreased by anxiety is a vague and I hope groundless report of your having not been sufficiently attentive to the business of the field. I should be glad to hear from yourself. the matter is not great, all should religiously observe their duty and character.

Your Relatives here are well, no remarkable occurrence in town. your Sister and Brother send their kindest regards; I pray you write, and let me know the times. no News here, all quiet. Col Davison is on his way.

From yours &c

Saml McCorkle.
