(Copied by Mrs. M.G. McCubbins for her edification on Aug. 20 1924).

An imitation of the picture of Capt. Minian Steele's home on Fifth Creek, ten miles from Statesville, probably built over 135 years ago.

Archibald Steele of South Carolina (paternal great-grand-father of Dr. Newton Chambers Steele who wrote "Captain Ninian Steele and his Descendants" and also "Archibald Steele and His Descendants" which was published in 1900.)

Archibald Steele, born in Scotland or England about 1728, married Agnes Edwards in Ireland, who was of Scotch ancestry but born in Dublin, Ireland, in 1720. They came to America in 1766, settled 1st in Lancaster Co. Pa., but moved in 1772 to Fishing Creek, York Co. S.C., and had 5 sons: John, Joseph, William, James & Robert. Four of these served in the Revolution under General Francis Marion--Joseph being captain of a company--but Robert was refused enlistment being only 14 yrs. old.

(1) John born about 1758 in Ireland, died in 1808 in York Co.S.C. having had 7 children: Archibald, Robert, William, John, Hugh, James & Jane.

(2) Joseph born about 1760 in Ireland, died Aug. 28 1795 in York Co.S.C. (the Captain) married Rebecca Anderson & had 6 children: John, William, Archibald, Samuel, Jane & Alexander.

(3) William born about 1762 in Ireland died in York Co.S.C. on Nov. 20 1806, married Margaret Johnston & had 2 children: Joseph & Samuel Johnston Steele.

(4) James born about 1765 (in Ireland?) died in York Co.S.C. on Oct. 6 1811, married Mary Workman & had 4 children: Joseph, Lavinia, Annie & Margaret.

(5) Robert born Sept. 7 1767 in Lancaster Co. Pa. moved to York Co. S.C. in 1772, died in Limestone Co. Ala. (where he moved in 1817) on Jan. 9 1852 & is buried in the old New Garden Cemetery near Elkmont. Married in York Co.S.C. to Miss Martha Starr (born March 6 1773 died Sept. 20 1854) in 1796 & had 7 children: Mary, Rev'd Archibald Jackson, Dorcas, Martha Stuart, John Newton & Anna Jane. John Newton Steele (son of Robert) is #255 see family 122 married Miss Anna Steele & had Dr. Newton Chambers Steele of Chattanooga, Tenn. who wrote the above books.

Dr. Newton Chambers Steele, the 4th son of Mary Ann & John Newton Steele, was born in Limestone Co. Ala. 7 miles north of Athens, on Sept. 20 1849, but moved to Miss. He was born in the home his grandfather, Robert Steele built in 1818. Moving to Miss. they settled in Tishomingo Co. and bought the David Cogsdell place 1/2 mile west of Tuscumbia River--Jacinto being 16 miles off & their postoffice was Kossuth. David Gibson Montgomery (nephew of father) went with them in 1854. In 1859, they sold the Cogsdell place intending to move to Texas or Ark. but after looking them over, decided to remain another year at least, then bought the Wm. Kerr farm 8 1/2 miles west of Corinth, Miss. & moved into it in autumn of 1860. On Sept. 24 1867, made profession of religion under a Methodist Circuit Rider, Jas. W. Honnoll, at old Pleasant Valley Church, and on 13th, he & brothers Joseph Robert & Wm. Harvey joined the C.P. Church under charge of Rev. Robert B. Wear, this church about 1/4 mile from home. Began reading medicine under Dr. J.M. Taylor of Corinth, on Sept. 20 1870, attended University of Louisville, Ky. & finished at University of Nashville, Tenn. on Feb. 26 1873, leading class. Moved to Kossuth in July 1873, married Miss Francis Ellen Jones on Feb. 23 1875. She was the daughter of John & Mary Ann (Dilworth) Jones & lived 2 miles south of Kossuth & was 20 years of age. Moved to Corinth on May 13 1880, went to London, England, in 1886 to learn more of eyes, ears & throats, moved to Chattanooga, Tenn. in 1886, joined the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, elected to a chair in Chattanooga Medical College in 1889. Had daughter, Mary Irene who married William Dupree Carswell, a lawyer of the city, & they have child, Edward Steele born Jan. 2 1899. Only son William Hugo, born Dec. 11 1884 (named after Miss Frances E. Willard the temperance reformer).

Captain Ninian Steele and his Descendants, compiled by Newton Chambers Steele, M.D. & published by the MacGowan & Cooke Co. of Chattanooga, Tenn. in 1901. Dr. Newton Chambers Steele, of Chattanooga, Tenn., says in his introductory remarks, "I believe the genealogy is the most complete one of its size ever published" and while there may be a few errors which may easily be corrected, yet he has accounted for every descendant of the Captain excepting that of one man--see family 39. He himself is descended from two sets of the name, his paternal line coming through "Archibald Steele and His Descendants" which he compiled. Captain Ninian Steele may not be related to his paternal side-- is not sure about it. Captain Ninian Steele (may have been born in Ireland?) on Dec. 24 1738 & probably settled in Chester Co. Pa. when a boy. On March 15 1770, he married Elizabeth Chambers. She was the daughter of Henry Chambers (born July 13 1708 died in Iredell Co. N.C. on Oct. 26 1783) & his wife Jane Futhy (born in 1715 & died June 25 1781) who moved from Pennsylvania (Chester or Lancaster Co.) to Iredell Co. N.C. about 1754 after having been married on Nov. 14 1735. (Miss Anna Steele of Hico, Texas, & a great-granddaughter of Henry Chambers told him her maiden name & said that she was a sister Henry Chambers's wife Sr. or Jr.--probably the latter, therefore, cousins).

Captain Ninian Steele built the first cotton gin in the state (after reading a description of the Whitney gin invented in 1793) on a fork of Fifth Creek near his home (ten miles from Statesville) & ran it by water power. He was a peace-maker and would pay out his own money to settle broils between his neighbors--he died Dec. 30 1813 and is buried in Statesville, N.C. beside his wife who preceded him on Jan. 26 1810. (Dr. Chambers says he has no proof that this Ninian Steele was a Capt. in the Revolution but has many traditions and a letter from an orphan girl who lived in the home which tells of the terror they felt when the British & Tories were in the neighborhood while he was fighting for their independence, and that he was called "Captain" when custom did not apply such things without reason.)
