* Thomas Chunn proves the will of John Dobbins Feb. 3 1818.

William " = to help lay out ^{one} years provision ^{Dobbs}, the widow J. F. McCubbins of John Turner, deceased, & her family Nov. 1838. Her name is Millicent Turner.

Clerk Superior Court Rowan County. In 1813 Thomas Chunn has 258 acres & 5 Blacks Salisbury, N.C. see Taxes in Capt Hide's Company.

William Chunn (Book 30 page 429), on Nov. 3 1828, mortgages the land upon which he lives, consisting of 360 acres, to Elias Barber Sr. for 247 dollars and 17 cents. The land is ^{part} that of Robert Cowan, the heirs of David Webb, heirs of William Davenport, Jonathan Barber, heirs of James Knox, Benjamin Posteen and Joseph Burroughs, having been conveyed from Henry D. McBrook through his attorney, Joseph E. Debbins, to William Chunn.

Robert Chunn (Book 30 page 430) on Nov. 3 1830, mortgages ^{lot # 247-17} 260 acres to Elias Barber, Sr. It is adjoining that of Almand Hall, the heirs of Hugh Debbins, Jacob Skiles and John Locke and was conveyed from John Debbins to Thomas Chunn who devised it to Robert Chunn.

William Chunn and wife Mary, and Wm. Trent and wife, Margaret, on July 17 1829 (Book 30 page 735) David C. Locke for $500.00, 408 6/10 acres of land next that of Mrs. Trotter, crossing Grants Creek to Alexander Lock, William Gibson on Swampy Creek next that of Matthew Lock. It descended to them from their father Matthew Locke D.C.
(This is another proof of the Chunn, Gaither et al, genealogy.)

William Chunn and wife Mary, and William Trent and wife Margaret, (Book 30 page 733) get 190 acres-- the undivided one third part of David C. Locke's land for $500.00. It is situated on Poplar draught of Grant's Creek next that of Sophia Penninger, Maj. John Locke, William Gibson and on south side of the Salisbury Road next that of the Gaither heirs and Martin Phifer. July 17 1829.

The will of Thomas Chunn (Book H page 216) is made July 12 1822 and prebated May 1823. He mentions his wife ^{+ 4 children} Susannah, daughters; Lelah and Mary; sons; Robert ^{who gets the house plantation but must help pay for his plantation} and William; executors; two sons; and witnesses are John Locke and Jno. McCullough Jr. Codicil speaks of daughter, Eliza Griffin

Hyde is commissioner for the sale Nov. 1862 and is administrator for Maria Chunn deceased, see #14. Thomas C. Hyde is made guardian of Eliza J. and Mary C. Chunn orphans of Robert Chunn, and as William Chunn didn't leave a will he is also administrator with a $ 2000,00 bond and N.F. Hall and Benjamin M Hyde are sureties for him. Mary Chunn to John Knox April 3 1827. signed David McHenry. Benjamin M. Hyde is the guardian of Margaret Hyde.

In Dr. Rumple's History of Rowan Co. N.C. page 436, "About the year 1794, a number of Episcopal families removed from Maryland to the western part of Rowan, among them two families of Barbers, and other families by the names of Gardner, Chunn, Harrison, Alexander, Lightell, Mills, Swan, Reeves, Burroughs, etc. The Rev. Richard W. Barber, of Wilkesboro, is descended from Elias Barber, the patriarch of one branch of the Barber family, and the Rev. Samuel S. Barber, of Hyde County, is descended from Jonathan Barber, the patriarch of the other branch. Mr. Chunn was the grandfather of the Chunns of this county, Mrs. Susan W. Murphy, Mrs. Betty Murphy, and many others. The late Archibald Henderson was often heard to remark that the Rev. Thomas F. Davis-- afterwards Bishop of South Carolina-- said to him, that Mr. William Chunn-- the father of Mrs. Susan W. Murphy-- was "God's gentleman", meaning thereby that he was endowed by nature with all the graces and genuine characteristics of a true, cultured, Christian gentleman-- a very high compliment indeed,

Aug. 15 1921.

Dear Mrs. Kyle:

You do not know me, but inasmuch as I always felt flattered to be called like you by some of your friends in Salisbury, I have the advantage.

Having determined to get up Mary Gaither Robinson's papers for Colonial and Revolutionary orders as a Christmas present for last year, I found the idea blocked by the ignorance concerning Elizabeth Crawford who became the wife of General Matthew Locke's son Matthew Locke, D.C. It seems that there is no getting at her birth, marriage and death nor parentage and home. Do you think that you can assist in locating her? There is no trouble in proving that your line is straight from Gen'l Matthew, but it would be so nice to include the Crawford family if possible. If I had addresses of the Trent family they might know.

Can you recall hearing where she was married? Miss Jennie Caldwell-- now deceased-- claimed relationship with the family in such way that it seems as if this Elizabeth Locke, widow, then married John McCullough. There is a Capt. John McCullough buried at the First Presbyterian Church in Statesville but no tombstone is erected to his wife. She may have been buried with others in the new cemetery which I didn't visit.

It is rather strange that such a fine family should be so careless of its dates, but suppose that life was too full of entertaining and being entertained to care.

Mary promised to bother you herself, but sickness has been almost continuous for the past years in her household, that she probably couldn't find the time.

It would be a great relief to get papers finished and off my mind and I do hope that you can give some impetus.

Mr. Allison had a stroke of paralysis many months back and was very critical-- haven't heard about his condition since. Miss Sallie Chunn lives with Mrs. Allison.

Jeanie Kluttz has been making Mrs. Vance a lengthy visit at Gombroon-- having been tied down with illness in the family for so long it is nice that she can now relax.

Mrs. Mock has been in extremis for many weeks but there is a possibility of her lasting months.

Mr. & Mrs. Ed Overman's son-in-law was buried here yesterday-- results of flu last winter. Mildred's married life has been clouded by illnesses. Understood that a sick child in Asheville necessitated her return to Asheville.

Hoping that your homelove will pardon my liberties, I am
Yours respectfully,

Mamie Gaskill & C. Cubbins

Aug. 22, 1921.

Dear wanie:

Your letter of August 15th received, and read with much pleasure. I, too, have had the geneological bee buzzing under my bonnet for quite a number of years, and have written Mary Gaiter three times in regard to the family tree. Being told by Cousin Annie Allison that she had it compiled. I have been so wrought up over this matter I would almost cheerfully commit murder to get it. I am sending you all the ~~data~~ that I have regarding the Chunn family. I do not know where Elizabeth Crawford was born or where she was buried. Have often heard my mother speak of her in days gone by. But at that time being so busy rearing children, I did not give a thought to ~~getting to work~~ ~~in making up a family tree.~~ I would willingly defray any expense necessary toward securing a copy of the records of my family and will appreciate very much if you will furnish me what data you have or send me a copy of your papers when finished. I will be glad to pay for same. You ask for information regarding the Trent family. I know very little concerning their ancestry. Cousin Madge and Wm. Anderson's grandfather was Margaret Locke. She was a sister to our grandmother, Mary Locke. She married Wm. Trent, our grandfather. Wm. Chunn's grandmother was Susan Wainright. My mother was named for her. I know nothing else regarding the Wainright family. We are related to the Barber's and DuBose's in some way. Perhaps you can get some information from the Barber's who use to live and perhaps do now, at Wilkesboro, N. C. Think it would be a very good idea if you would write to
