FRANKLIN (a)—Richard and Artridge (?) Franklin were the parents of John Franklin (born June 5, 1750). Was this Richard the brother of Benjamin Franklin? John Franklin's wife was Elizabeth (died November 10, 1810), whose maiden name is unknown. John Franklin's son, John W. Franklin, my great-grandfather, is buried in Tennessee. I will appreciate any information on this family.

YANCEY (b)—I would like to get data on my great-great-grandfather, John Yancey, and his wife, Elizabeth. John Yancey was in the Revolutionary War with General George Washington. He lived in Virginia, where my great-grandmother, Jane Cosby Yancey, was born in Hanover County, October 21, 1778. She died in Sumner County, Tennessee, April 22, 1860. Who were the other children of John and Elizabeth Yancey? Elizabeth was born October 21, 1756, and died November 25, 1848. There was a Mary Yancey, who married John W. Franklin. Was she a daughter of this John and Elizabeth Yancey?—MRS. HELEN S. CARTER, Columbia, Ala.

Dear Agnes and Cousin Mary--

At Last I am Sending You the papers as I promised, and it is well that I did not send them so soon, for a Month or over after I had sent them in--a Notice Came to Ruth that they would have to have further proof, and sworn statements of all births & deaths and records & Notary Public seal, I had every

in--a Notice Came to Ruth that they would have to have further proof, and sworn statements of all births & deaths and records, & Notary Public seal. I had every thing except the births & deaths of the grandparents Michael M. & Jemima Black M.
I wrote them a letter and gave the Statements that Mrs. W.M. Heafner Cherryville, N.C. (Frances Mauney) Lawson Mauneys daughter 73 yrs. old & her sister 75-- and the statements Cousin Mary gave for grandmothers age, & I had to Make her 3 yrs. older than grandfather to Make her death 1871, and 33 (33) yrs old when She was Married--and I was afraid they would not accept it--as she had 9 children Mrs.
Weafner said, but they did not ask for the Names of the Children or the number.

The lady who helped me said she would make them both 82--grandmother born 4 or 5 yrs. after Mich., and died about the Same time after his death. I wondered if Cousin Mary may have confused 92 for 83--Mrs. W. said grandmother died as Samuel B.
(her brother) his birth 1807 Sam. Blacks granddaughter of Kings Mt wrote me, but no record of Michael or Jemima. The papers were approved, & Ruth is a D.A.R.

I knew if I didnt get this history of our family it never could be gotten-- for all the older people will soon be gone. I sent the wills of the great grandparents Valentine & Catharina.

Heard from Lucy Yancy and sorry to hear Cousin Georgia is so sick.

Sincerely yours

Minnie Crowell

P.S.

Ruth had to have two sets of papers, one to be kept in Washington and one here, or in the State--Sarah made her (Ruth) an extra typewritten Copy & also one for me to keep--so if any one of the family ever wants it--it Can be handy.

Had my father kept the record-- & I can't understand why he didn't keep the births & deaths of his parents, & also Uncle Ephraim-- it would have been easy for me. Had I thought I would ever want it, or that My father hadn't kept it, it would have been so easy for me to have gotten it from him before he died.

Tell Lucy Ruth is still on foot, but expecting a Call at any time, also tell her that Lee Mailed her a letter to-day-- He is busy in Court.

Love

Minnie"

Ephraim, Valentine, Michael, Peter, Lawson, George, Susan, Bythie, & Katharine.

The lady who helped me said she would make them both 82--grandmother born 4 or 5 yrs. after Mich., and died about the same time after his death. I wondered if Cousin Mary may have confused 92 for 82--Mrs. W. said grandmother died at Samuel B. (her brother) his birth 1807 Dem. Black's granddaughter of Kings Mt wrote me, but no record of Michael or Jemima. The papers were approved, & Ruth is a D.A.R. I knew if I didn't get this history of our family it never could be gotten--for all the older people will soon be gone. I sent the wills of the great grandparents Valentine & Catharina.

Heard from Lucy Yancy and sorry to hear Cousin Georgia is so sick.

Sincerely yours

Minnie Crowell

P.S. Ruth had to have two sets of papers, one to be kept in Washington and one here, or in the State--Sarah made her (Ruth) an extra typewritten copy & also one for me to keep--so if any one of the family ever wants it--it can be handy.

Had my father kept the record--& I can't understand why he didn't keep the births & deaths of his parents, & also Uncle Ephraim-- it would have been easy for me. Had I thought I would ever want it, or that my father hadn't kept it, it would have been so easy for me to have gotten it from him before he died.

Tell Lucy Ruth is still on foot, but expecting a call at any time; also tell her that Lee mailed her a letter to-day- He is busy in Court.

Love

Minnie"

Dear Agnes,

I have been thinking I would write to you for some time to know if you can help me any out of this D.A.R. I am getting so tired bothering with it and finguring the dates that I have from the general information that I have gathered.

My D.A.R. papers were copied from Mrs. Flossie Mauney Granthem's papers. I was down on Rocy River getting up dates and information generally for the Daughters of the Confederacy, and this lady who was helping me, and whos father bought the grandfather place (Davis place) and by the way I went to grandfather home place, and also to the great grandfather home place. This lady Mrs. Shankle looking over the D.A.R. records (she was registrar) at that time, "said here is Valentine Mauneys record if you are interested in it"--gotten up by Mrs Flossie M. Granthem I told her I did want it, but was busy with the U.D.C. then, & when I got ready for it, the paper had passed into other hands & I had a time getting it, but Mrs. Shankle finally got it for me.

I want you to write me how old your Mother is--and the date of her birth--also the date of her fathers Marriage to her Mother.

You remember she told me that Grandmother Jemima lived to be 92 yrs. old. At that time I would have been 14 yrs. old and Cora 19--I can't hardly figure neither of us ever remembering hearing any thing about her, though Cora would have been away at school about that time--and I may have heard and paid no attention to it.

I went to Lincolnton recently and went to see and old Cousin of ours Lawson Mauneys daughter, 73. She looked so much like June, She said Tombstones had been put to grandfathers & grandmothers graves, but had been broken or fallen down, & she helped pick them up & put them under the old Church, but they were destroyed during the building of the new Antioch Church, & dates gone.,

Please write me.

Minnie Where is Lucy."

Dear Agnes and Cousin Mary--

At Last I am Sending You the papers as I promised, and it is well that I did not send them so soon, for a Month or over after I had sent in--a Notice Came to Ruth that they would have to have further proof, and sworn statements of all births & deaths and records, & Notary Public seal. I had every thing except the births & deaths of the grandparents Michael M. & Jemima Black M. I wrote them a letter and gave the Statements that Mrs. W.M. Weafner Cherryville, N.C. (Frances Mauney) Lawson Mauneys daughter 73 yrs. old & her sister 75-- and the statements Cousin Mary gave for grandmothers age, & I had to Make her 3 yrs. older than grandfather to Make her death 1871, and 33 (33) yrs old when She was Married--and I was afraid they would not accept it--as she had 9 children Mrs. Weafner said, but they did not ask for the Names of the Children or the number.
